We made every due cause to file on time and, in point of fact, utilized. However, we were not aware our return was not accepted and processed until we received an error message the day after the return was due. In attempting to determine the error, we found some of the input data was no longer in the system, resulting in our having to re-input the data. This is the first time we used an e-filing service and have never missed a tax deadline previously in our history. Please accept our sincere regrets we did not catch the efile error on time.
